Storytime Click on the book cover to listen to the story. Try the activity to match the book.	 Click the picture to listen to a story. -Now it's your turn to pretend to become an animal...if you could change yourself into an animal what would you want to be? -Draw a picture, act out, or tell someone about the animal. What does it look like, act like, and eat?	 Click the picture to listen to a story. -Tell someone near you something you would like share with your friends. -Have an adult draw an outline of a fish for you. Color and decorate your own rainbow fish.	 Click the picture to listen to a story. -What were some of the different things that the dog did during the night? -Pretend you're a pet. If you had a secret life what would it be? Describe a day in your secret life as a pet to a parent or an adult.	 Click the picture to listen to a story. - Think about a time when you may have been too loud, too wild or just too much for your family or classmates. What happened? Tell someone about it. -Using construction paper, paper bag, or white paper...to create your own shark to make. Example of one below 	 Click the picture to listen to a story. -Harry did not like taking a bath, but it was good for him. Think of something you don't like to do, but you need to because it is good for you. Draw and tell someone about it. -You can make a toilet paper dog craft to go along with this book. Example below:
	Letter Song Sing along to the letter song each day.	Letter C song	Letter R song	Letter H song	Letter I song

Math

If there is more than one activity listed, please choose the one you'd like to complete.

Move your body along with Jack Hartmann to practice patterns.

Be creative, use what you have to make ladybug counters with your child.

Use your brain and your eyes to think and say the numbers with Jack Hartmann

Move your bodies along with Jack Hartmann as you practice counting up to 20

Have your child hide their eyes while you make a group of your counters. Have them tell you the amount without counting.
